Music lessons - September '25 sign up

Dear Parents,

We are very pleased to be able to offer a wide range of individual and group music lessons at St. John's. Many of our lessons are offered in partnership with Essex Music Service. Music lessons will take place during the school day by specialist music tutors.

We also offer guitar lessons with David Ainsworth – a separate letter will be sent out shortly about these.

- 15 and 30 minute 1-to-1 lessons are currently available in the following instruments: piano, singing, flute, descant recorder, clarinet, bassoon, saxophone, electric guitar, bass guitar and drum kit.
- The instruments above are mostly suitable from Year 3 upwards, though some younger children have singing or piano lessons.
- We also offer Band-it lessons from Year 3. Band-it gives children the opportunity to learn band instruments in a 30-minute group lesson (keyboard, electric guitar, bass guitar, drums, band vocals). Please note that Band-it lessons are designed to give your child the opportunity to try out several instruments and experience playing music in a band. If they wish to learn a specific instrument, they may prefer to choose individual lessons.
- If your child is keen to play an instrument not listed above, please let me know and we'll see what we can do.
- We recognise that music lessons are expensive. Essex Music Services do offer tuition discounts, which may make lessons more feasible (see below).

How do I apply for lessons?
